Jim,

No this is not a Qualitest form, it is a form used by PCG. Any information that you feel is confidential of course you are not obligated to provide. PCG is prohibited from sharing any information obtained with any other party. You completed a Qualitest questionnaire last November, so some information may be repetitive. PCG has been contracted to assist us with conducting site visits to fulfill our "know your customer" efforts. PCG is very thorough, and their checklist is very detailed. The goal is to provide due diligence to satisfy any potential inquiries from DEA. Any part of the planned agenda you are not comfortable with, please let me know so I can discuss with PCG. I will let them know that part of the checklist will be incomplete due to confidentiality. Thank you for allowing them into your facility, and I will work with you to make sure there is a mutually acceptable comfort level during the visit. Please let me know if you have specific concerns or questions.

Thanks,

Eric

Hi.

The attached is what Tony Sheller sent me. Is this your form? Some of the info on here I've already provided to Qualitest and some of it is confidential and I will not answer. I just didn't feel comfortable with some of this since it's not Qualitest doing it. I just had a DEA inspection in August and don't feel a lot of these needs to be provided.

Your thoughts?

My phone is you want is: 816-364.5777 x102

*Thank you,
Jim*

Jim,

Darren informed me that you may have questions regarding Suspicious Order Monitoring and the third party site visit. I do not have a phone number for you, but feel free to give me a call at the number below or we can communicate via email if you prefer. I will do my best to answer your questions.

Thank you,
